THE EDITOR'S CHAIR.

HOW THINGS LOOK FROM OUR STAND POINT.

The Opinion of The Editor and the Opinion of Others which we Can Endorse on the Various Topics of the Day.

We heartily endorse the following from the Statesville Landmark:

The re-nomination of Congressman Henderson we take to be evidence of an awakening on the part of the people to the fact, to which they have too long been inadvertent, that ability in Washington counts for nothing without length of service. Everything there goes by seniority. Many men of very moderate ability reach positions of commanding influence in Congress purely by reason of long service there with its necessarily attendant familiarity with usage, precedent and public affairs—a familiarity which nothing but actual service can supply. The further away our people get from the idea that a seat in Congress is merely a personal reward bestowed upon a popular favorite, the less heedful they become of the cry "Rotation in office!"—the cry of the man who is out—the better they will be represented in Congress; the better will their public business be attended to.

The morning Hon. B. F. Grady was nominated at Clinton, Congressmen McClammy, who was defeated for renomination, said that the district had a good and able man in Grady, that we ought to keep him in Congress for ten years at least. These words of truth McClammy spoke like a patriot. He knew that the wise districts kept a Congressman long enough for him to be a man of power and influence in the halls of legislation. One good man in Congress, who has served fifteen or twenty years, would have more weight and could do the State more good than nine new men.

A few weeks since, in answering the Wilmington Messenger's charge that the Alliance would split the Democratic party, we said that the Alliance would never split from the party, but predicted that if a split ever occurred it would be by those who had been dictating and could do it no longer. We are sorry to say that our prediction has already been fulfilled. The South Carolina Democratic Convention was composed of between 300 or 400 delegates, a small fraction above one-sixth of this body (not farmers, not members of the Alliance) who could no longer have their way, split from the party. Adieu, ye kickers! the party is stronger without you.

Learn a lesson from history and know that if you continue this cruel and unjust policy you will not long hence give birth to a revolution, which will not only sweep you, and your protection theories as well, from the face of the earth; and with them there will be swept away also many other things, the loss of which conservative men everywhere would regret. In the redress of wrongs, indignant men are not always nice or wise; and though not in the bargain, the blood will naturally follow the pound of flesh. Do justice to the people and do it now.—Vance's Speech in the Senate.

The dividing of the Encampment has, we believe, been a mistake. We also think it a mistake to have a permanent encampment. Let the whole four regiments go into camp together at least once each year for at least two weeks, alternating between the West and the East at various points suitable. The boys will learn as much of millitary tactics by this plan as from a permanent encampment and at the same time take a trip to a new place each year, thereby learning something of their State, which they otherwise would probably never learned.

Does farming pay? Yes, the world is growing richer each year from the products of the soil, but those who delve those products from the earth are growing poorer. Then farming pays, but it is someone besides the farmer. Why is this? The Alliance is investigating the matter.

Senator Vance in a private letter to a gentlemen in Goldsboro, referring to the Sub-Treasury bill, says:

I was and am friendly to the purposes of the bill, and to everything that the farmers wish that can be granted them within the fundamental law of my country. If their cause is wisely directed it will triumph as sure as there is justice upon earth.

Gov. Scales in his message to the last General Assembly of North Carolina recommended that a Railroad Commission be created. He said that there was a crying need for it, that the people demanded it and that it was the duty of the Senators and Representatives to pass it.

SELL ME A KISS.

Sell me a kiss, my bonny doo,
An' I'll be sure to pay ye,
There maun be nectar on yer mou,
I hope ye'll no' gainsay me.
I've seen the cherry, ripe an' red,
When simmer days were cheery,
But cherries ne'er sic beauty shed
As yer twa lips, my dearie.

Sell me a kiss, my winsome lass,
An' set my heart a thrillin',
An' ere a twelvemonth come to pass
I'll settle, gin ye're willin'.
I'm no' ower rich in warl's gear,
But I hae something better—
Sell me just ane—ye needna fear
I'll no' be lang yer debtor.

"No' ae kiss, lad, though ye'd fill fou'
My lap wi' gowd an' heap it,
Gin it be worth sae much to you,
It's worth nae less to keep it.
I'm thinkin', lad, ye mak' ower free,
I'll nae sic thing consither,
Wha buys a kiss maun een buy me—
The twa maun gang thegither."
—[William Lyle.

Photographing a Wild Bear.

Henry H. Ragan, lecturer, was out in the Yosemite not long ago looking up material. Like the modern traveler, he carried his camera wherever he went. He concluded that he would like to photograph a wild bear. This wish was communicated to a hotel clerk, who, like his more easterly brother, signified his willingness to furnish the bear. Oberon, King of the Fairies in "A Midsummer Night's Dream," boasted that he knew a bank, etc. The Yosemite hotel man, with equal felicity, said he knew a bear. It came down from the fastnesses at certain hours and approached civilization, gazed at it, and returned to his cave. Since the Government allows no hunting of game in the National Park, bruin roamed unmolested. But how to get the bear in position for a snap shot from the camera was the question. The clerk solved this. At a certain hour the clerk took a large portion of meat from the cook's box and left it at a point at which the bear was frequently seen. Ragan followed with his camera. In due time the bear came down from its retreat. The clerk was a safe distance away when the bear appeared, but Ragan stood his ground. The bear stood his ground until the odor of the meat was wafted his way. The bear made for the luncheon, picked it up greedily, and then, as if grateful for the feast, it reared on its haunches and remained in that attitude for a minute, a sufficient time for a "sitting." A moment later the bear turned in another position, as if it were trying to accommodate the artist, and the latter obtained another view. The bear then rolled away in the same direction whence it came. The artist in returning found the hotel clerk and a few guests secreted near his position, heavily armed, ready for a fray if the occasion had arisen.

A Good Story.

I always have an eye out for my trunk when I travel. After I have received a check and seen it dumped into the baggage car I am quite sure it will go a certain distance, but when that distance has been covered my anxiety is again aroused. When I changed railroads at Philadelphia the other day I realized that I had a contract by which my trunk ought to change with me, but nevertheless the fear that it would go astray and finally bring up in New Orleans or San Francisco, started me over to Camden at an early hour to watch the transfer, writes M. Quad in the Detroit Free Press. I expected to see my trunk come over at the last moment, and be left on the platform as I moved off, but a great surprise was in store for me. It came over an hour ahead of time, along with a big load of others, and I stood around to see it come off the wagon. A gentle word or a nickel cigar will sometimes have great influence with the men who are hired at so much per month to damage your trunks. They were dropped off, one by one, each one receiving more or less injury in the fall, and by and by the two fiends on the wagon came to my trunk. I had two cigars in my open palm, and was about to step forward with kindest smile when the depot baggageman suddenly sung out:

"Here, now, be mighty careful of that trunk!"

"What for?"

"Because I say so. Let it down as gently as if it were glass."

The trunk was lowered with the utmost care, and I approached the man and asked to what sentiment on his part I should attribute the great favor.

"Is that your trunk?" he bluntly demanded.

"Yes, sir."

"Let's see your check."

I produced it. He compared the figures, and then called out in an awful voice:

"Get out o' this or I'll knock your blamed head off! I thought that trunk belonged to my sister."

Monkey and Parrot Sale.

A small crowd of Italians and wharf speculators hustled over the side of the bark Annunciation Fomento as soon as she was made fast, and in five minutes an unearthly chattering began between monkeys, parrots, buyers, and sellers. There were only a few monkeys, but plenty of parrots, which were sold at prices of from $1.50 to $4 each. The largest parrot, which brought the top price of $4, was a beauty of nearly twice the ordinary size, and his observations in Spanish created a great deal of amusement among the sailors, who had evidently been teaching him their parlance. The monkeys went at prices from $2 to $7. The sale lasted twenty minutes or so, at the end of which a queer procession of swarthy Italians, a dozen in number, who had been fortunate enough to purchase, came over the side of the vessel with their chattering and squirming possessions, and vanished ere the blue coated inspector had begun his work.—[Brooklyn Eagle.

Poor Crops in Europe.

The reports received daily from abroad by telegraph respecting the general crop prospects are bad.

In France, especially in the central and northern departments, the cold nights and the constantly wet days are bringing about disastrous results. In Germany, Switzerland, Belgium, and Holland, the constant rain and low temperature are seriously affecting the wheat, but in Austria-Hungary the harvest looks favorable, and there are promises of good yields.

A telegram from Odessa, Russia, announces that the continuous wet weather threatens to injure all crops, especially the cereals.

AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

The Latest Doings in the Field of Federal Legislation and Politics.

The Week in Congress.

THE SENATE.

The prospect of an early adjournment of Congress has at last become a reality. The relief to the deadlock that threatened to prolong the session indefinitely came in the form of a resolution from Senator Quay, providing that debate upon the tariff bill should close August 30, and that no further legislation should be taken up at this session other than the general appropriation bills, pension bills, public building bills etc.——The consideration of the tariff bill by sections continued to occupy the attention of the Senate during the week. The tin plate clause was chiefly under discussion, Senator Plumb, of Kansas, offered a substitute providing for a bounty of one cent per pound upon all tin plate manufactured in this country instead of placing an increased tariff duty on foreign tin plate. The amendment was debated at length, and went over.——The joint resolution extending the time of the general appropriations for the support of the Government was taken up and passed.——The conference report on the Indian appropriation bill was presented and concurred in.——The bill (H. R. 11,380) to provide an increase of clerical force for the Pension Office was taken up and adopted.——The river and harbor bill was then taken up and passed after debate.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The conference report on the sundry civil appropriation bill was presented and passed, the Senate having receded from most of its amendments. The bill appropriates about $30,000,000.——Consideration of the bill granting certain privileges to the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company was renewed, and votes taken on a number of amendments.——A joint resolution to continue temporarily the appropriations for the expenditures of the Government was passed.——The bill in regard to collisions at sea (S. 3618) was taken up and passed.——The conference report on the fortifications bill was presented and adopted.——The bill for the relief of Daniel McKay and the executors of Donald McKay was passed.——The conference report on the Indian appropriation bill was presented and adopted.——The lottery bill was taken up, and passed.

BISMARCK TALKS ONCE MORE.

The Ex-Chancellor Thinks He Will Rule in Germany Again.

While staying at Schoenhausen Prince Bismarck had an interview with Herr Abrayi, a member of the Hungarian parliament. He stated that on all questions of domestic and foreign policy he had clear and well defined views, as he had had during all his career, but even when these were most opposed to those of the present emperor he had never been guilty of intriguing against his policy. Prince Bismarck still believes that his political resurrection is not at all impossible and that before very long he may be seen in active life again.

Thirty-Nine Trout in Its Maw.

James Shuman, of Portville, Pa., shot a blue heron on Page Creek which had 39 brook trout in its stomach, none of them in the least advanced toward digestion, showing that the big bird had taken them all at the meal it was still engaged in securing when it was shot. As a large number of these immense birds have been fishing along Page Creek for a couple of weeks past incalculable numbers of trout must have been destroyed [illegible]

Value of Green and Dry Foods.

In discussing the nutritive value of green and dried foods relatively it is said by the Maine Station that it has been repeatedly demonstrated that carefully dried grass is as digestible after as before drying, and the same of fodder corn dried and as ensilage. Experiments show that a pound of digestible matter in ensilage, with its accompanying seven or eight pounds of water, can do only practically the same work as a pound of digestible material from timothy hay, with its water nearly all dried out. Science has given practice no safer or more useful conclusion than that cattle foods have nutritive value in proportion to the digestible dry matter which they contain. There is, however, a small difference in favor of ensilage and a chance for the exercise of good judgment in combining foods.

State Alliance.

A Body of Handsome and Intelligent Men--Ninety-Five Counties Represented.

THE NEXT MEETING TO BE AT MOREHEAD CITY.

The N. C. State Farmers' Alliance met in Asheville on Tuesday of last week. Every county in the State except one was represented. The fine personnel of the body attracted the tention of every one. Asheville did the handsome thing by giving the Alliance a royal welcome. A correspondent from Asheville, under date of August 14th says:

The convention is composed of representative men from nearly every county in the State. Their rapid and intelligent disposal of all business before them shows a decided knowledge of their needs, and a determination to remedy all defects in their organization for pushing forward the reforms for which they were organized.

The great bulk of the business of the body is of course not for publication, but to show that the Order stands firmly for its demands already made. We will state that a resolution demanding a Railroad Commission from the next Legislature and refusing to support any man opposed to it was unanimously passed.

Jute bagging was condemned and each sub-Alliance left to its option as to the substitute for it. The purposes and aims of the sub-Treasury bill were endorsed and the body resolved to stand by that bill until a better one was offered. The members of the Order will support no one opposed to the objects sought through the measure.

The following are the officers elected for the ensuing year:

President—Elias Carr, Old Sparta, N. C.
Vice-President—A. H. Hayes, Birdtown, N. C.

PRESIDENT CARR'S ADDRESS.

President Elias Carr delivered the annual address. The full text is as follows:

TO THE OFFICERS AND DELEGATES OF THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE FARMERS' ALLIANCE:

Our fourth annual meeting is at hand and the signs of the times indicate a still greater interest in the objects and aims of our order and a unity of feeling among the agricultural and laboring classes, never before witnessed in this country. It is a source of congratulation and presages aught but good. At a bantling age at our first, Rockingham, meeting, we numbered eight county and one hundred and thirty-two subordinate Alliances. At our second meeting, in Raleigh, we had fifty-two county and one thousand and eighteen subordinate Alliances. At our third—Fayetteville—eighty-nine county and one thousand eight hundred and sixteen subordinate Alliances, with an actual membership of sixty-five thousand. To-day we have a total of ninety five county and two thousand one hundred and forty seven subordinate Alliances containing an approximate membership of ninety thousand, with every county in the State organized save Dare. Notwithstanding this, applications for new charters are constantly being received and the work goes bravely on, with an increasing demand for lecturers and organizers. The reports of the executive committee, secretary, treasurer, State lecturer and business agent will better set forth the condition of the order. To them I respectfully refer you, asking a careful consideration at your hands.

Congress has made the following affidaties for North Carolina Runs:—increasing the appropriation for Cape Fear river at and below Wilmington, N. C., from $10,000 to $5,000.

FERTILIZER TAX UNCONSTITUTION.

Judges Bond and Seymour have decided that the Fertilizer tax is unconstal. They hold that the tax levied is an impor duty, and further that it is a tax on commerce; and for both reasons, it is not warranted by the Constitution of the United States and is void. The court say that the tax is not within the scope of the police power of the State; nor is it a mere "inspection tax" which the State might impose merely to cover the cost of an inspection and which would be lawful.

This decision follows the line of the drummer's tax case, both of which decision are to be regretted.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Several weeks since an anonymous letter was circulated throughout the State and printed in several papers charging a corrupt political deal, the effect of which was to make Fowle governor and Clark and Whitaker Supreme Court Judges. The charge was believed by but few and promptly refuted by the friends of Fowle and Clark; a little later Col. Steel published a letter stating that from a conversation he had with Judge Whitaker that he was authorized to deney the charge. This satisfied everyone and closed the whole matter up. But the following telegram from Judge Whitaker to the State Chronicle again puts the whole matter in an ugly shape:

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 15.—The letter of Col. Walter L. Steel to the State Chronicle unintentionally mistakes my private conversation with him. Neither he nor any other person is authorized to speak for me. SPIER WHITAKER.

What will the State convention now in session in Raleigh do about the matter? What does it mean?

STATE CONVENTION.

N. H. Fennell and Marion Butler are delegates at large. The results of the convention will be given in next issue.

The establishment of a railroad commission, with the proper powers to make joint rates for all connecting roads in your state would certainly result, in my judgment, in the building of more roads from trunk lines into sections that otherwise will never have the benefit of a railroad. This would follow, because the railroad commission, by the making and enforcing of a joint rate over the two roads (the new and the trunk line) to the commercial centers of your state would be a guarantee against the exercise of unfriendly hindrances, and the establishment of such arbitrary rates by the trunk lines as to head off and crush out the new road and thereby making its construction impracticable.—L. PRESIDENT CARR'S ADDRESS.

meeting ever held in this country has been the assembling of the Farmer and Labor organizations in St. Louis in December last, the necessity for which was foreshadowed by that eminent statesman and jurist, the late Judge David Davis, when he said, as long ago as 1866: "The rapid growth of the corporate power and the malign influence which it exerts by combination on the national and State legislatures is a well-grounded cause of alarm. A struggle is pending in the near future between this over-grown power, with its vast ramifications all over the Union and a hard grip on much of the political machinery on the one hand, and the people in an unorganized condition on the other for the control of the government. It will be watched by every patriot with intense anxiety." Never more prophetic words fell from the lips of man! The people though slow to admit it, had at last been convinced, and three millions of people sent their representatives there to form an alliance against this monstrous iniquity. The unanimity with which the demands set forth by that body were adopted and the universal endorsement by all the States and Territories after mature deliberation and discussion, should, and I believe will, convince our legislators of our honesty of purpose and determination to accomplish our ends. This meeting, National in character as in name, was a magnificent success in obliterating the old lines of sectionalism—a matter devoutly to be wished and of first importance in securing the necessary national legislation.

While some of the demands set forth have been granted, the most important, the relief of the financial distress of the farmers, has been ignored. The labors of the past are as nothing if we expect to accomplish this end. This government for the last thirty years has been run in the interest of a victorious war party. The war feeling has predominated in every national election. The men who did the fighting have no voice in the government. Who are the men in power to day? Those that were enriched by the war and its consequent legislation. The ill-gotten millions of the legislators has been the power behind the throne. The evidence of this is found in the history of the laws, the history of the bonds, the history of the national banks and the history of the demonitization of silver. But a stronger evidence yet is the present condition of the working classes, who, as a rule the world over, are patient and peaceable.

What means these labor organizations? This—that the people see by combination alone can they live. Under a purer system of government forty years ago these organizations were unknown and there was no necessity for them, but to day how different! Every branch of trade has been compelled to organize to save itself from absolute annhilation, and is it to be wondered at when we come to learn that the present iniquitous tariff laws, the passage of which was purchased by a few thousand rich manufacturers, have robbed the people and put into the pockets of these same manufacturers no less than nine billions of dollars. Hence it is that at our city of Washington the protest of a millionnaire will over-ride the petitions of millions of working men.

To what course can such a terrible state of affairs be attributed? It is due to the apathy or the ignorance of the masses. We must conclude the latter and it behooves the order and the state to educate the masses and teach them to think for themselves.

The acts of Congress in aid of agriculture for the last twenty-five years have been few indeed compared with those of our rich manufacturers, and the tariff is so manipulated that they—the few thousand—reap the entire benefits. We all know but too well the result of this reign of selfish greed. The small land owners are being pushed to the wall, the larger ones are no longer able to make both ends meet; farms in the North, South, East and West, and especially West, that twenty-five years ago, during the period of greatest inflation, that paid a fair percentage on a valuation of $20 to $40 are now being foreclosed on mortgages for half that amount, and the former owners seeking new fields of employment for livelihood.

It is a sad commentary on humanity, but nevertheless true, that with an unequal distribution of wealth there is unequal distribution of social power. The influence of the middle class, the man of moderate means, is no longer felt in the legislative halls of the capitol, he is being swept away. Wealth is rapidly concentrating and out of the consequent corruption but two classes are forming—the lordly rich and the beggarly poor. While free to admit that the iniquitous protective tariff has brought about the present depressed state of agriculture by stripping the poor of three-fourths of their natural savings and concentrating a majority of the wealth of the country in the hands of an infinitessimally small part of the people, composed of manufacturers, trusts, pools and combines, a repeal alone of this unjust measure would not relieve the present distress. It would not lift a single mortgage. The one thing needful in the present financial condition of the people is a debt-paying system of finance. In comparison with which all other questions sink into utter insignificance.

While looking after our National governmental relations, we must not lose sight of the education of the masses. Without this we cannot prosper and keep peace intellectually or materially with other States more liberal in this matter. The country districts are more dependent upon the public school system than the towns and cities; hence we should be especially interested in having better educational facilities. We pay here in North Carolina only forty cents for public instruction for each man, woman and child, while in the Southern States the figures run up to eighty-nine cents. In other words, we spend for education less than one-half the average of other Southern States. Now, in view of the fact that without education we cannot preserve our civil or religious liberties, or feel or appreciate the meaning of that precious heritage, freedom—and realizing that there is no slavery so galling as the slavery due to ignorance, I heartily recommend this body to lend its aid and encouragement to a revision of the present public school system, thereby affording more extended facilities for common education.

I further recommend the appointment of a legislative committee whose duty it shall be to look after the interest of the order. Likewise that some adequate provision be made for the national percapita tax of 5 cents; and that the State Secretary be made State Crop Statistician; the County Secretary, the County Statistician, and the sub-Secretary, the sub-Statistician with adequate compensation for their services; and finally, in view of the fact, that we were numerically weak at the formation and adoption of our constitution and, since the order has wonderfully increased in strength and members, and the duties devolving upon us being infinitely more onerous, I recommend a revision of the constitution to a special committee, if it need the approval of this body.

I have dwelt longer upon national affairs, believing that there, in the Capitol at Washington, have originated the farmers woes and from the source alone can come the remedy. Let us continue to insist upon our National Congress giving us this much needed relief. History teaches that the withs with which the rich bind the poor can be broken only by fire, sword or bloody revolution. But we have a better method of overturning fraud and corruption in high places. We have free speech and free ballot, and when the wisdom of the acts of the national meeting, like leaven, begin to work upon the masses of the people, then and not till then shall we have a peaceful and happy solution of all our troubles. In conclusion I desire to return my sincere thanks to you, to each counecy and subordinate body and each individual member for the universal kindness, courtesy and honors bestowed upon me. May wisdom crown your deliberations.

HOGG FOR GOVERNOR.

Galveston, Tex., Aug. 13.—The State Democratic convention, in session at San Antonio to-day, nominated James Hogg for governor. He had no opposition in the conventiin.

He canvassed the State in favor of a Railroad commission and has carried the day by an everwhelming majority. His chief opponent in the canvass was Judge Cook, a fine speaker, and a distinguished jurist and Statesman. But Hogg is on the peoples' side, while Cook is supposed to be connected with corporations.

[Hogg is the present attorney General of the State; a private letter from a friend in Texas referring to the canvass says:—ED.]

I never saw such an upheaval ground swell and general expression in my life. Hogg has carried the heaviest load of any candidate that was run for Governor in Texas. Every Railroad and its employees, every corporation and its employees, Nearly all the drummers in Texas, which is, I think near 2000, and every lawyer in the employ of corporations and their pets and friends have all been against him, besides that they have lied on him, slandered him, and done everything they could to defeat him, money has been no object, anything to beat Hogg. It is the people coming in thei. might. Hogg was born and raised at this place, only now about 40 years of age but his canvass has made him the most prominent man among Texas politicians.

VANCE'S AMUSING RIDICULE OF RADICALS.

Senator Vance made a speech few days since in ridicule of the claim that the farmer derived any benefit from the tariff. The manufacture of woolen goods, he said, who got 75 per cent. protection on his goods said to the farmer: "If you give me 75 per cent. protection on my woolen goods against English and French manufactures, I will give you 25 cents per bushel protection on your wheat and 10 cents per bushel protection on your corn against England" that does not grow a bushel of corn or one-fifth of the wheat that her people eat. One got cash and the other promises. Whenever the manufacturer got tired of reaping the benefit of the bargain on his side, he agreed to let the farmer get his "innings." So far, the manufacturers had proved remarkably long winded. He had not shown the slightest evidence of being tired. He confessed that he hated to see a new industry rise in this country, because it was sure to be pauper saddled on the treasury.

Every time that a new mine was discovered or a new industry established, it was immediately fostered upon the public treasury, and now, for fear lest there might come a King who knew not Joseph, in other words, a Democratic majority, which did know the people, it had been thought necessary to provide by the last will and testament of the Republican Congress for such paupers as might hereafter be born in lawful wedlock to that community, or in unlawful wedlock either, so there was to be an opening made for some manufacturers of cotton ties to be established, and it was said to be the duty of the Senators, not to provide for an infant when it came, but to provide for it before it came.

There was no way, he declared, in which the proposed increase of duty on cotton ties could be looked at that was defensible. The most deserving, because the most useful, in a commercial point of view, of all agricultural products of the United States was taxed to death in all processes of its growth, and productor, and was then taxed, a farewell shot as the ball left the gin-house, 103 per cent. on article that enveloped it, and this not for the benefit of American manufacturers of cotton ties, for there were none, and not for the benefit of the treasury, for the bill was not one to reduce revenue, but out of pure "cussedness," and because the Republican party had got so used to taxing things that they could not stop.

Our railroad commission was created by the constitution of 1877. At first, it was strongly opposed in certain quarters, but it was found that during the first five years of its existence 2,000 miles of railway were built, against less than 100 miles for the five years preceding. Construction continued to increase until the figures for the present year show that Georgia leads all the states in the union in track-laying.

This is Georgia's answer to the charge that a commission would discourage railroal construction.

These facts speak volumes, but the additional fact that the commission costs our people only $10,000 a year should not be forgotten. It is safe to say that the money could not be better invested. We are satisfied with the returns.—Atlanta Constitution.

"It is an interesting as a novel, as informing as a universal gazetteer, as epigrammatic as one of Bob Ingersoll's speeches, as fiery as a Milwaukee poem of passion, and as funny as an elephant in trouserf." The above is from the New York Sun, commenting on the bill recently introduced by Hon. C. W. McClammy for the issue of legal tender notes. If it is to be regarded as wit, we have read much better in the almanac; as a criticism, it is simply senseless. It is very easy to understand the Sun's animosity toward all such bills—they do not dovetail in with the interests of Wall Street and monopoly.

"The Alliance as abody will not oppose the election of Senator Vance, and I am certain he will be returned. Some farmers will of course work against him, but the majority will support him as of old. The fact is, the farmers themselves are not solidly for the sub-treasury bill itself, although they are a unit in the support of the principles included in it, and we believe Vance will do just what is right."

From a letter received by a friend we hear that Dr. Eugene Grissom, formerly of this city, has opened offices in the Masonic building, Denver, Colorado, and is practicing medicine in that city.—News and Observer.

RED SPRINGS.

A Fine Exhibit at the Fair—Address of Senator Vance.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Maxton, Aug. 15.—There was a large crowd to day at the Fair at Red Springs. The exhibition, though small, was very fine. The agricultural exhibits were splendid and the fruit magnificent.

Senator Vance addressed the people of Robeson county, explaining himself on the sub-treasury bill, very satisfactorily. His speech was received with warm and hearty approval, and made a favorable impression. He will be heartily supported in this county.

The Fair was a splendid success financially.

Our commission reduced passenger rates from five to three cents a mile, and made a large reduction in freight rates. So far from injuring the roads, the result was increased business, bigger profits, better dividends, and higher market values for railroad stocks.

It has been found that lower local rates stimulate local interests. We have been fortunate in having men of experience and integrity on the commission, and they have stood between the people and the roads, dealing fairly and squarely with both, preventing oppressive charges and discrimination.

The building of so many new lines in Georgia is largely due to the fact that the power of the commission to establish joint rates encourages the building of short lines.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Farmers' Alliance seems to have taken possession of all the politics in Georgia and are running the whole machine to their own liking. They have nominated two-thirds of the members of the Legislature, and all of the new Congressmen, the Governor, and it is now said they will elect Livingstone United States Senator.—Statesville Landmark.

Blood Poison

Is very liable to follow contact of the hands or face with what is known as poison ivy, especially in hot weather or if the body is perspiring freely. The trouble may subside for a time, only to appear in aggravated forms. Hood's Sarsaparilla thoroughly eradicate every trace of poison from the blood, as the cures it has accomplished conclusively show. It also cures scrofula, salt rheum and all other affections arising from impure blood.

The falsehoods told by parents to children frequently teach the children how to tell falsehoods themselves. Untruthful parents will likely make untruthful children.

There is a sort of economy in the ways of providence that one shall excel where another is defective; in order to make men useful to each other and mix them in society.

The hardest useful labor is less exhausting in the long run than exciting pleasures, as most devotees in middle life sadly confess.

"Just as Good."

Say some dealers who try to sell a substitute preparation when a customer calls for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Do not allow any such false statements as this induce you to buy what you do not want. Remember that the only reason for making it is that a few cents more profit will be made on the substitute. Insist upon having the best medicine—Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is Peculiar to Itself.

It is impossible that an ill-natured man can have a public spirit, for how should he love ten thousand men who never loved one.

Merit wins, as the marvelous success of Hood's Sarsaparilla shows. It possesses true medicinal merit. Sold by all druggists.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health.

At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Peculiar Sarsaparilla. It strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. The peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation of the vegetable remedies used give to Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar curative powers. No other medicine has such a record of wonderful cures. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other instead. It is a Peculiar Medicine, and is worthy your confidence.

LOCALS:

—The Clinton Male Academy opens this year under the Superintendence of Rev. J. W. Turner. The fall term begins Monday Sept. 1st.

—The Wilmington team of Odd-Fellows, 25 strong, will visit Clinton Lodge on Friday evening for the purpose of conferring degrees.

—Of course you can lend your newspaper to your neighbors, but that is not the way to help it. Get your neighbor who likes to read it to suscribe for it.—Wil. Messenger.

—There will be an excursion from Garland to Wilmington the Hammocks and Ocean View on Tuesday Sept. 2nd. The proceeds will be devided between the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches.

—We must apologize to our readers for being behind with THE CAUCASIAN last week. Brother Jerome's printers on The Christian Leaflet struck without notice, so we got out his paper for him with our force, which put us behind.

—The township primaries will be held on Saturday Sept. 6th. Let every democrat attend or ever thereafter hold his peace, if good men are not nominated. The man who does not attend the primary conventions for the election of delegates virtually has no voice in the nominations and elections.

—There will be the fullest attendence and more interest taken in primaries this year ever known in the history of the county. And it is right and just that it should be so for it is by this means only that the will of the people can be executed and good government secured.

—The body of Mrs. Hardy Clifton, the mother of our townsman, Mr. David Clifton, was yesterday interred in Clinton Cemetery. She was 64 years of age and has been sick for several months. She is the mother of fifteen children, thirteen of whom are living. Her husband, Mr. Hardy Clifton, is still living, is over 90 years of age and has been blind for ten years. Fifty years ago he was a noted manufacturer of home-made wrought iron plows.

—Messrs. Stewart, Hines & Co. have just placed in their lumber factory one of the famos Glen Cove planers, which is said to be the best machine in the world. We saw it at work Tuesday just after it was put in place. The work it does is certainly beautiful. The surface of the ceiling and flooring is as smooth as if polished with sand paper. It works knotty and cross grained lumber as well as the finest grain. This lumber is shipped chiefly to Baltimore and we are sure that it will compare with material from anywhere. They will ship about a car load per day.

—The great number of communications coming in, recommending candidates for nomination by the Democratic county convention to meet Sept. 10th, forces us to discontinue publishing them, only as advertisements at regular rates, 10 cents per line. Six words makes a line upon an average. So if you wish to set forward the claims of your choice, count the words of your article, divide by six to ascertain the number of lins and send in with, ten cents for each line, and it will be published if it reflects on no one else.

TOWNSHIP PRIMARIES AND COUNTY CONVENTION,

To be Held on September 6th and 10th.

The Democratic Executive Committee of the county was called together on last Thursday, the 4th, by E. W. Kerr, Esq., the chairman. He stated that the object of the meeting was to decide upon a time for holding the Primaries and the County Convention, The committee favored August 23rd and 27th, respectively, but the point being raised that the required ten days notice could not then be given, the next Saturday, Juiy 30th, was objected to on account of the Union Meetings, so September 6th was settled upon for the Primaries and the following Wednesday, September 10th, for Convention.

Anderson—Faison.

By 7:30 on last Thursday morning the Presbyterian church began to fill. Each ones eyes feasted admiringly upon the tasty and beautiful decorations. The ferns and asparagus never looked more graceful; the numerous evergreens never more vital and enduring; the tube roses, caladiums and clematis and the perfusion of roses never more bouyant, pretty and hopeful. The whole effect was so perfect and harmonious that nothing could have been added or changed. In fact it seemed that the young ladies had entwined into each boquet and wreath the great esteem, tenderness and love which each had for the lovely, pure and noble woman who that morning was to be a bride. It was just dark enough for the soft light from the chandeliers to fall upon the whole scene, giving a peculiarly happy effect. It is now just eight o'clock, Miss Mary Stewart is at the organ and as she touches the keys the audience distinguishes the Mendelssohn wedding march. Dr. B. F. Marable stands in readiness at the altar, everyone is now all expectancy. Miss Nannie Faison, the bride elect, enters from the left, leaning upon the arm of her sister, and Miss Mamie Faison, the Maid of Honor; Rev. N. L. Anderson, the bridegroom elect, enters from the right, leaning upon the arm of his best man, Mr. T. M. Lee. They meet at the altar. The bride carries a boquet of white flowers, the Maid of Honor a boquet of pink roses; the four flower girls, Misses Allie Lee, Mattie Hobbs and Rena and Bettie Johnson, each carrying boquets, and look as sweet and pretty as cherubs. On either side stood the ushers, Messrs. W. S. Holmes and J. K. Morisey. The music stops and Dr. Marable in a graceful manner performs the impressive ceremony. The bride and groom in low but clear tones assent to the terms of the eternal covenant, and are one. The bride was pale, but composed and never did looked sweeter or more interesting. It is five minutes till train time. The organ gives forth another wedding march, and Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Anderson, after receiving many hasty congratulations and bidding many adieus, hasten to the depot. They will spend several weeks in Western Carolina and then go to Marion, Ala., where Rev. Mr. Anderson's ministerial charge is. We congratulate Mr. Anderson as the luckiest of men.

Howard—Turlington.

The editor of this paper had the pleasure of attending the happy nuptials between one of his school mates and one of his pupils on last Thursday, August 14th. It was at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. E. T. Turlington, at Ora, N. C., that Mr. A. F. Howard, of Huntley, was married to Miss Lillie Turlington. Rev. J. L. Stewart performed the ceremony. The attendants were as follows: Marion Butler with Miss Annie Lamb; Rev. F. M. Royal with Miss Annie Clute; J. T. McLamb with Miss Irene Howard; W. B. Lamb with Miss Janie Williams, Bertus Williams with Miss Laura Crumpler; L. M. White, with Miss Lessie Royal; E. L. Crumpler with Miss Lillie Williams; H. B. Howard with Miss Minnie Lamb; J. A. Turlington, with Miss Bettie Cooper.

After a sumptuous dinner the party repaired to the residence of the groom's father, Mr. J. C. Howard, where a reception was given during the evening. The couple were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. The happy couple will occupy Mr. Howard's handsome residence, near Salem school, which he has just finished and furnished. THE CAUCASIAN extends its congratulations and best wishes.

For the Eye of Ye Business Men.

The first essential in writing is to have something to say, and the first essential in advertising is to have something that the public wants, or can be induced to think it wants. The The law of supply and demand in advertising is, probably, better illustrated in the "want" columns than anywhere else. Advertise for a man to fill some general position not requiring experience, and you will be overwhelmed with replies. Advertise in the same medium for a person requiring some special knowledge, and the paucity of answers will be likely to surprise you greatly. Obviously it is not fair to find fault with the medium or the system. The same laws of supply and demand apply to the general advertising. If there is only a limited market for the article you are seeking to push, it is manifestly unreasonable to complain of advertising because through it you have not succeeded in accomplishing a miracle. If you have what people want and can give them a bargain, and will then advertise it we will guarrantee that you have customers and make good sales.

Duplin Items.

(Special Correspondence.)

We understand that the Fall term of the "Warsaw High School" will begin the first Monday in September with Prof. L. S. Cannon, of Marion, N. C., as Principal, and a thoroughly competent corps of assistant teachers. The Kenansville High School will open at the same time under the efficient management of J. A. McArthur.

The township primaries have been called to meet on the 30th day of August, and the County Convention for the nomination of county officers and members of the General Assembly will meet in Kenansville on the 2d of September.

WAS IT MURDER?

A MAN WITH A BULLET-HOLE THROUGH HIS HEAD.

The Criminal Still at Large.

On Tuesday evening a tragedy was enacted in Turkey township, of this county. A negro named Albert Herring, lives on the place of Mr. Frank Carroll. Another negro, Grant Kenan, of Duplin county, was there. They were both out in the field and each had pistols. Two pistol shots were heard. Herring ran. Kenan was found dying with a bullet-hole through his head and a revolver grasped in his hand with one chamber discharged. It seems that each negro fired at the other. The cause of the trouble is not known. Herring has not yet been caught. Coroner, Dr. Holliday, was summoned.

CLINTON'S PROGRESS.

Improvements Going on in Every Quarter.

A walk around town will show any one that Clinton's progress is steady and on the up grade all the time. Buildings are going up, paint being spread, streets being improved and signs of progress on every side. Capt. Wm. A. Johnson is building another neat and tasty cottage on Johnson street; Mr. D. M. Partrick is completing a neat residence on Sampson street; on the same street Mr. J B Bodenhammer is building an addition to his residence; the frame for a two-story dwelling is going up at the end of McKoy street; Mr. A. F. Johnson's residence at the end of Main street will be the handsomest and most elegantly finished and furnished residence in the county when completed; J. E. Royal's residence, on Main street has been enlarged and greatly improved.

At the Carolina Veneer Works and the Lumber factory many improvements and additions of machinery are constantly being added. In short Clinton is to-day one of the most prosperous and progressive inland towns in Eastern Carolina.

Teachers' Institute in Session.

The Institute was called together and organized on Monday, the 18th, in the College Building, by Prof I. Royal, County Superintendent, and County Board of Education. Sixty-five teachers were enrolled.

Prof. Joyner arrived on the noon train, and gave a lecture in the afternoon on Reading. We did not hear the lecture by Dr. A. Holmes at night on Physical Culture, but learn that it was entertaining and instructive. On Tuesday morning Prof. Joyner lectured on the Methods of Teaching. During the day he also lectured on Arithmetic and Spelling.

The question of Co-Education in colleges was discussed at night between Mes. M. Bell and W. A. Hobbs on one side, D. T. and J. J. Oates, Jr., on the other. They all did well in view of the short notice for preparation. On Wednesday Prof. Joyner lectured on School Organization and Government.

Last night Rev. J. W. Turner, Principal of the Clinton Male Academy, gave an instructive and learned lecture on Astronomy. The Institute will continue on during the week.

All Through Sampson.

What Sampsonians are Doing and Saying.

☞ Send us the news from your township for this column. Every subscriber to this paper has a right and is requested to contribute items of news in "hes" neighborhood for this column. We will not publish your name unless you desire it.—ED.

PINEY GROVE.

There will be a Farmers' Dinner and Alliance Picnic, near Mr. John Martin's on next Thursday. Hon. B. F. Grady and Mr. Marion Butler have been invited to speak on the occasion.

Messrs. R. A. Jordan and J. F. Hollingsworth took a flying trip to New York a few days since.

FRANKLIN.

There will be a Farmers' Dinner and Alliance meeting at Dry Run Store, Pender county, on next Thursday. We understand that Mr. Marion Butler, editor of THE CAUCASIAN and County Lecturer for Sampson, has been invited to deliver the speech.

HONEYCUTTS.

As pretty flour is now being turned out by Mr. E. T. Turlington at his mill as can be made by any mill in the State. He has put in one of the California Smutters and Separators. This machine is compact, ingenious and a marvellous success. It not only completely rids the wheat of smut, dust and trash, but can be regulated so as to take out any faulty grain of wheat. This is the second one of these machines so far brought into the State and it certainly excels anything of the kind we have ever seen.

TURKEY.

Crops in Turky are just about as good as we could ask for.

We will make no compromise as to our candidate for State Senator. We say let him who has fairly "won the spurs" wear them.

Wm. C. Hines, mentioned in last week's paper as suffering with a severe attack of typhoid malarial fever, is slowly convalescing, and Jas. L. Hines, his brother is suffering with an attack of the same fever at his father's, in this township.

HALLS.

Mr. Samuel H. Hobbs has several acres in rice that is excellent. It is about five feet high and some of the heads are nine inches long now and are only about half grown. He made 122 barrels last year on about two acres. Mr. Hobbs has greatly improved his farm (using home-made manure) and is to-day one of the best and most progressive young farmers we know of. Before next spring we will give the readers of this paper his formula for compost, which is the cheapest and best we know of.

Mr. T. A. Hobbs has so far this season made 1,700 gallons of cider and shipped 200 bushels of apples from a ten acre orchard. He will make at least 3,000 gallons this summer and fall. He says that there is nothing that pays better, and that he intends to go into the fruit business extensively. He planted 3,000 young trees last year and expects to plant as many more this fall and winter.

MCDANIELS.

Married, at the residence of Mr. S. S. Carroll, on the 7th instant, Mr. S. S. Carroll to Miss Hattie Bullard, A. F. Robinson, J. P., officiating. The attendats were: Mr. King Robinson and Miss Geneva Highsmith; Mr. John Highsmith and Miss Ella Highsmith, of Durham. May joy, peace, happiness and a long life be the lot of the newly married couple.

Miss Lila Corbett and Master Sprunt Corbett, of Hampton, N. C., have been visiting their uncle, L. M. Boykin, the past week. F.

LITTLE COHARIE.

Miss Katie Smith, of Cyress Creek, is visiting friends and relatives in this section.

Miss Mary Williams, of Cumberland county, is visiting Misses Mollie and Bettie Fisher.

The Sunday School Conference for Sampson circuit will be held at Andrews' Chapel on Friday and Saturday, before the first Sunday in October. The Superintendents of the Sunday Schools on the circuit are requested to send a list of delegates and speakers as soon as they are appointed to the Secretary of the Conference, by order of the President, J. D. O. Culbreth, and L. M. White, Secretary.

Miss Leanie Bristowe and Mary Parker returned last week from a visit to Wilmington and the Seashore.

Miss Martha Johnson, of Clinton, is visiting at Rev. J. E. Bristowe's.

Cotton has been damaged some by the recent heavy rains, but not as much as was at first supposed.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Mary Culbreth is quite sick. Hope she will soon be well again.

SEA WEED.

NORTH CLINTON.

Rev. J. W. Bell will preach the funeral of W. H. Gautier's child, at Rowan church the fifth Sunday in August.

SOUTH CLINTON.

Rev. J. W. Turner will preach at the Chesnutt School-house next Sunday, August 24th, at 11 a. m.

Miss Laura Register, of Rose Hill, Pender county, is visiting Miss Martha Matthis. Miss Register was at Oxford Female Seminary last session and will return again this fall.

TAYLOR'S BRIDGE.

Mr. A. J. Johnson, of this township, has one of the most beautiful rural residence in the county.

Speaking of the truth of the report that Sampson was to have a new railroad the other day one of our sturdy farmers said, "truth is stranger than fiction and a mighty heap scarcer."

One of our High School girls explained to her "ma" this morning that "he kicked the bucket" was slang, and that she should say "he propelled his pedal extremities with violence against a familiar utensil used for the transportation of water and other fluids."

Miss Mary ——— wishes some one to give the title of the following poem and the name of the author:

He kissed me—and I knew it was wrong,
For he was neither kith nor kin;
Need one do penance very long
For such a tiny little sin?

He pressed my hand—that was not right;
Why will men have such wicked ways?
It was not for a moment quite
But in it there were days and days!

There's mischief in the moon, I know;
I'm positive I saw her wink
When I requested him to go
I meant it, too—I think.

But, after all, I'm not to blame,
He took the kiss; I do think men
Are born without a sense of shame!
I wonder when he'll come again!

MINGO.

Miss Flora Wade, of Wade, N. C., Flora McKoy and Vedie C. Godwin, of Godwin, N. C., have been visiting N. A. Layton, Esq.

Diphtheria is raging in this vicinity.

Politics is the topic of the day. Is not Mingo entitled to a man for the Legislature? W.

Personals.

Rev. J. W. Turner returned Monday morning from the encampment. Mr. Turner preached two Sundays in Wilmington, one at St. John's and last Sunday at St. Paul's.

Maj. W. L. Faison, cashier of the Clinton Loan Association, left last Friday under medical advice for Sulphur Spring, West Va. He has been suffering with a throat and lung trouble for some time. We hope he will return much improved.

Mr. Joseph E. Bryan of Piney Grove gave a pleasant call Tuesday. He is a wounded confederate soldier and is an excellent citizen. He is attending the Institute this week. We understand that his friends will present his name to the convention for the nomination for sheriff.

New Registration.

Under the Election Law as passed by the General Assembly of 1889, a new registration is necessary before the next election. The County Commissioners in session Monday appointed the following registrars for the respective townships of Sampson:

REGISTRARS:

North Clinton—David Marshburn.
South Clinton—B. S. Peterson.

Westbrooks—Allen Daughtry.
Mingo—J. C. Draughon.

THE ENCAMPMENT.

(Cor. of the News & Observer.)
Wrightsville, N. C., Aug. 12.

The encampment of the Second Division of the North Carolina State Guard is a thing of the past. The Second and Fourth Regiments were present in full ranks, and did some fine drilling.

This encampment is declared by able judges to be the finest and most successful in the history of the State Guard.

Col W. C. Jones, senior officer in command, is to be congratulated upon the success attained, and upon the fact that his regiment (the second) left the campt this morning in a body with only 15 or 20 men short of the number who reported the first morning of the encampment.

Tetter Cured by S. S. S.

I used Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) about three years age for an aggravated case of Tetter, and was cured sound and well with three bottles. I have had no return of the annoying disease since. I tried various other remedies before using S. S. S. but they failed to cure me, or benefit me in any way. OLIN C. FOGLE, Fairfield, Ill.

I have sold Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it. As a tonic and blood purifier it is without an equal.

Considers it Without an Equal.

"I have used your valuable remedy (S. S. S.) for number of years, and consider it without an equal as a blood purifier and tonic. In fact I would not attempt to enter upon a spring or summer in this climate without it. I never tire of saying a good word for S. S. S. when I have an opportunity."

SOME FACTS FOR FARMERS.

How many farmers know that on nearly every tool we use on the farm we are forced to pay from 10 to 33 per cent. profit in order that the manufacturer can sell agricultural implements in free-trade Europe. In other words, the farmer in Europe buys his American made plows, harvesters, hatchets, etc., from 10 to 33 per cent. cheaper than the American farmer. Then the American farmer is taxed again to protect the manufacturer from the pauper labor of free-trade Europe. These manufacturers, who have a large export trade, are very close and secret especially in regard to terms and price. I have seen sufficient in the short time our Exchange has been in operation to demonstrate that nearly all lines of American manufactured goods are furnished to the foreign consumer cheaper than to the American. Why is this and how can we remedy it? These questions are vital to every farmer in the United States. We hear upon every hand the expression "that the Alliance is becoming a power in politics." It is, and will the farmers reap any benefit there from? I admit that the farmer is like the drowning man and will grasp at any straw, whether it offers him permanent relief or not, and I feel quite sure that professional politicians, who seek office as a business, will try to use the order to promote their personal ends. I think our reforms will come not so much from putting men in office as demanding legislation for our benefit. I think every man should act upon his own judgment and throw off the party yoke, refusing to accept for granted everything told them by those who make a business of politics. Speculation is the great evil that has fastened itself upon the commerce of this country and demands a tribute from every consumer and producer upon every article he uses I am quite sure that the different Alliance Exchanges will exert a very strong influence in regulating abuses and do more than anything towards giving the farmer full value for his produce. Every farmer should give his hearty and earnest aid because he and his family will be beneficiaries.—New York Correspondent of Progressive Farmer.

FRAUD AND FALSE PRETENCE.

In a recent charge to the grand jury of Pitt county, his honor Judge Boykin, defined what constituted false pretense. We give the following from the itemized crimes published in the "Watch Tower," which are of a more special interest to our farmers.

"Dealers in Fertilizers may be guilty of fraud in representing that the fertilizer they sell is composed of certain chemical combinations. If fertilizers adapted to the growth of cotton are represented as being adapted to the growth of tobacco, or if adapted to the growth of tobacco and are represented as being adapted to the growth of cotton, and the reverse is found to be true, the seller is guilty of fraud and deceipt and should be prosecuted.

If a tenant or renter gets supplies to cultivate his crop and represents to the landlord that he will deliver to him so many bales of cotton, barrels of corn, bushels of peas, and fails to redeem his promise and make good his contract he comes within the bounds of fraud and deceipt and is amenable to the criminal law.

If the laborer goes to the farmer or merchant and agrees to work and gets money or anything upon that promise and agreement and fails to comply he is guilty of fraud and should be prosecuted." [We are glad to see the above definition of fraud, for it is given as we have always thought it should be.—ED.]

TIN GOD ON WHEELS.

Senator Vance give the proposed increase of tax on tin in McKenly bill a lick a few days since in the Senate. He spoke of the canning business as the largest industry in the United States and as being increased daily among the people. The Farmers' Alliances were encouraging the establishment of small cannerys wherever the situation and surroundings and farm products were favorable. The United States was the largest consumer of tin plate in the world, the quantity imported last year having been 350,000 tons, and yet instead of a reduction of the duty on tin plate, the duty was to be increased from 1 cent to 2 2-10 cents per pound. That would make an annual tax on the people of the United States of $15,000,000. If it took five years to establish business in the United States that would amount to a tax of $75,000,000, he submitted that the tin baby was not worth so much. It was too much to pay for a little tin god on wheels.

THE NEW ELECTION LAW.

We publish for the benefit of those who may not have carefully examined them, a partial synopsis of the amendments to the Election Law passed at the session of 1887.

1. Registrars must be appointed by the first Monday in September preceding the election.

2. Registration books must be opened thirty days before the day of closing them and must be closed on the second Saturday preceding the election.

This renders it necessary that new registrations shall be ordered by the various Boards of County Commissioners by the 24th of August, in order to give the required thirty days' notice thereof.

A new registration is necessary in every county where no registration has been had under the law as amended in 1889.

The County Commissioners should attend to this at once, if they have not done so.

Section 2676 of the Code is amended by adding thereto:

No registration shall be valid unless it specifies as near as may be the age, occupation, place of birth and place of residence of the elector, as well as the township or county from whence the elector has removed—in the event of a removal—and the full name by which the voter is known."

The registration books are to be open for inspection and challenge on the second Saturday preceding the election.

Section 2681 is amended to read: Upon the request of any elector the registrar shall require the applicant (for registration) to prove his identity, or age and residence by such testimony under oath as may be satisfactory to the registrar."

The registrar shall record the name, age, occupation, place of birth and place of residence of the elector, and the name of the township or county from which the elector has removed—in the event of a removal—also the date of registration, in the appropriate column of the registration book.

Section 2682 is amended so that the registrar is to put on his book on the day of election any becoming of age since the books were closed, provided he be found otherwise entitled to vote.

Section 2,688 is amended as follows: Each box is to be labelled in plain and distinct Roman letters with the name of the offices to be voted for.

The majority of the judges of election for the county and State offices may rail off a space or enclosure as a polling place to hold the election for State and county officers. Only one voter shall be allowed to enter at a time, and no one but the judges of election shall be allowed to speak to him or interfere with him while casting his vote which shall be put in the proper box or boxes by the voters himself or by the judges at the request of the voter.

A similar but separate polling place may be railed off for Congressional and Presidential elections.

In such event, the Registrar shall appoint a deputy registrar for that separate polling place, to whom shall be furnished the names of all persons entitled to vote, and the judges of election shall appoint two judges or inspectors of election for that polling place who shall be of different political parties. The registrar and judges so appointed shall be sworn, &c.

But if the judges of election do not see fit to adopt this plan, the old regulations are to be observed.

Section 2604, which relates to the Board of County Canvassers is amended by adding to it—Said board shall have power and authority to judicially pass upon all the facts relative to the election, and to judicially determine and declare the true result of the same, and they shall also have power and authority to send for papers and persons and examine the letter upon oath.—News and Observer.

In a truly christian community—a community in which the principle of doing to others as we would have them do to us, the principle of equal rights and equal freedom, permeated laws and institutions—there would be no poverty, no prisons, no almhouses, no paupers and no tramps, no monstrously poor. There would be no women toiling away their lives for a mere pittance, no children at work who ought to be at play, no able-bodied men vainly seeking employment, no idlers enjoying wealth of which labor had been robbed, and no prostitution of the highest talents to the greedy gathering of wealth that cannot be carried beyond the grave. In such a community there would be room for all, work for all, plenty for all, leisure and opportunities of full development for all that God's providence calls into the world.—Standard.

A HINT FOR YOUNG LADIES.

When your sweetheart comes to see you, don't be foolish enough to confine your sweetness to him alone. Have him in where all of the rest of the household are. Let the talk and the chatter and the music and the playing of games be in the home circle. Then the few minutes that he gets with you by yourself will seem all the more delightful, and he will think you the most loving little creature in the world. Men are much more observant than they are credited with being, and the man worth having as a husband is the one who will appreciate your love for those of your own people and will see that as you make a small part in one home, you are becoming adapted for the central figure in another.

Never say that you don't expect a man to marry your whole family. It's vulgar. You do. That is, if you are a good daughter and a loving sister. You want him to be one with you in sympathy and affection, and as you take his name, so you assume responsibilities as far as his people are concered. You, two, are the most to each other—your love for each should be the greatest, but you cannot isolate yourselves and insist that you have no duties outside your own home. If you do this, you become narrow and selfish, and you are quite too nice a girl for that. So remember when he comes, the bridegroom of yours, that his heart is bound the tighter to you if the ribbon used to hold it has written upon it in golden letters. "Love and consideration for those at home."—Ladies' Home Journal.

It is not strange that the Farmers' Alliances should ask that the Government shall "build warehouses and advance money to the farmers on the corn, cotton, oats, tobacco and what deposited therein." Is not this what the Government does to the producers of silver, except that it buys the bullion outright?—New York World.

Five hundred delegates attended the meeting of the State Farmers' Alliance at Asheville on Tuesday, every county in the State was represented.—New Berne Journal.

I sell no cheap, "fire guilt" goods but carry a STANDARD LINE OF GOLD FRONT GOODS. The attention of the ladies is called to the latest styles of BREAST PINS—they are "things of beauty?"

The old reliable and standard SETH THOMAS CLOCKS always in stock, in various styles and sizes.
